

Hell And Hurricane

G C G C
More hard times are coming; easy times are gone
G C am7 D
I've been through hell and hurricane and angry storm
G C G C
And I'm caught out on the ocean so far from any shore
G C am7 D
A prisoner of destiny, trying to find some door

C G
Oh, Lord, don't you hear me calling
C am G
My wings don't fly and I don't know where I'm falling
A C G A C G
I need Your love to carry on, I need Your love to carry on

G C G C
I've been in all the corners like a lion in a cage
G C am7 D
Where no one ever touches me, and no one knows my pain
G C G C
I'm trying to find a future and to face it unafraid
G C am7 D
But I see my own unworthiness and I wonder what's to save

CHORUS

G C G C
I've been through hell and hurricane and I've searched but I did not find
G C am7 D
The doorway into paradise or a way to ease my mind
G C G C
You've given me some chances but I threw 'em all away
G C am7 D
I was standing tall and for my pride I've fallen low today

CHORUS

© 1978 Cindy Dacek Lowe / Recorded on After All This Time
Note; I play this song in an open G tuning but this works